

Falconry is important to you...

Its a big part of your life. You know what it takes – passion, dedication, persistence and skill. You work hard to get the most out of your bird because you know...

Good flights don't just happen by accident!

The standards, laws and strong community that make falconry possible didn't happen by accident either!

...NAFA is important to Falconry

*NAFA is moving forward.
Join the journey!*

Join online:
www.n-a-f-a.com/JoinNAFA.htm

Photo: Mario Nickerson
Front: Mark Adam

NORTH
AMERICAN
FALCONERS
ASSOCIATION

*ADVANCING THE
ART OF FALCONRY
SINCE 1961*

Leadership since 1961

The North American Falconers Association has played a vital role in developing the standards, regulations, and community that have enabled falconry to grow and thrive in North America.

There have been many challenges: prohibitive laws, the decline of the peregrine, and Operation Falcon, to name only a few.

NAFA's informed, credible leadership has earned the respect of wildlife managers and legislators alike. It has been instrumental in creating a legal environment that is the envy of falconers around the world!

Steve Dickson

The Future of Falconry

We have come a long way, but our work is not done. Wildlife habitat is shrinking, game species are declining and government funding is drying up. The next generation of wildlife managers may not be as supportive of falconry as the last.

Falconers are a tiny group in an increasingly urban world. We cannot afford to be complacent or take our freedoms for granted, and we cannot afford to be divided!

NAFA is ready to protect the falconry you cherish and ensure that it continues to flourish, but we can't do it alone.

We need everyone – including you!

Why join NAFA?

- NAFA has defended falconry for over 50 years.
- NAFA has the strength, credibility and track record to meet future challenges.
- NAFA complements and supports the local efforts of your state/provincial organization.
- NAFA partners with other organizations to conserve wild raptor and game populations.
- Members receive 3 issues of Hawk Chalk and one Journal every year. Beautifully illustrated, highly informative, “must read” publications!
- Members attend exciting world-class national and regional field meets.

You can support an essential part of your falconry for only $45 a year – less than a tank of gas!

Rob Conohan

Adrian Carter

The Falconry Community

With outstanding field meets and world-class publications NAFA provides an essential forum for information exchange and shared learning.

This vibrant community is at the heart of the innovation for which our falconry has become known worldwide.

Mark Williams

If you are as serious about falconry as we are...

Join NAFA today!